Aviation Security in 2030 – Panel Discussion

What do you think Aviation Security will look like by 2030?

- With an increase in passenger volumes, will we double the number of screening points, x-rays and HBS to cope?
- Will the one-size-fits-all approach in the flow management of passengers still apply for departing or transferring passengers?
- Will perceptions about cybersecurity through increasing connectivity, analytics and robotics persist?

Share your thoughts alongside a diverse panel on how Aviation Security will evolve in the future.
